

GLYNDEBOURNE

- LOGS STUDENT PERFORMS -

Sixth Former Katherine Miles had the experience that most musicians can only dream of - playing in the world premiere of a new Opera at Glyndebourne.

Katherine auditioned with over 400 student Musicians (requirement standard grade 7 and above) to gain a coveted place in the seventy piece orchestra led by professional conductor Nicholas Collon.

Katherine was one of four orchestral percussionists chosen to perform with the orchestra at this prestigious event.

Rehearsals began in early February for the new Opera 'Knight Crew' and culminated in a sell out week of performances at Glyndebourne in March.

The BBC has made a three part documentary series about the making of Knight Crew with Gareth Malone of BBC Two's 'The Choir' as the Chorus Master.

The series 'Gareth goes to Glyndebourne' is due to be transmitted on BBC Two at the end of June 2010.
