ZooLab

ZooLab came to visit Year 2 on Wednesday. They brought a real beaded dragon called Burt which was spiky and bumpy to touch.

They also brought a corn snake, a giant African land snail, hissing cockroaches, a massive tarantula, a millipede and some really cute rats.

We were able to hold and stroke the animals. It was a really fun morning.

Year Six visit The London Museum of the Docklands

London seems very different from the water. Year 6 went to London yesterday to visit the London Dockland Museum.

Here we learnt about Lascars; Asian sailors who worked on British ships from as early as the 15th Century. The museum was very interesting and we learned lots about the history of trade in general and how the Lascars lived in particular.

The part of the trip I liked best was when an actor came and pretended to be a Lascar called Abdul Miah. I also liked Sailortown; it was dark and very smelly.

After we had finished we walked to the Clipper Ferry dock. When it arrived we were amazed at how new and modern it was.

As it started to move we were even more amazed at how fast it could go. I took a picture of every big building I saw, including Tower Bridge.

We got off at Embankment and walked to Trafalgar Square where we met up with Year 4 and 5 and the bus for the journey home. We were all really tired after our brilliant day.
